I've grown accustomed to her face

Tema del Musical "My fair lady" (1956)

Letra: ALAN JAY LERNER
Música: FREDERICK LOEWE
Versión Coral: JOSÉ LUIS BLASCO

I'VE GROWN ACCUSTOMED TO HER FACE

makes the day begin.

makes the day begin.

makes the day begin.

makes the day begin.

makes the day begin.

makes the day begin.

she almost makes the day begin.

she almost makes the day begin.

she almost makes the day begin.

I've grown accustomed to the tune she used to hear her say: "Good morning" every day; Her I've grown accustomed to the tune she used to hear her say: "Good morning" every day; Her smiles, her frowns, her joys, her woes, her ups, her downs are second nature to me now.

smiles, her frowns, her joys, her woes, her ups, are second nature to me now.

I've grown accustomed to her face, accustomed to her looks, accustomed to her voice, accustomed to her trace in the air, accustomed to her trace to the voice, accustomed to her trace to the voice, accustomed to her trace to the voice.
