Love is the thing
Tema grabado por Ethel Waters (1933)

Letra: NED WASHINGTON
Música (1933): VICTOR YOUNG
Versión Coral: JOSÉ LUIS BLASCO

Moderato

What does it matter if we're rich or we're poor?

Fortune never endures.

My darling, all around us people clamor,

They're never dure.

A - round us people clamor, They're Striving for the things they'll never own, The only thing that hasn't lost its

Striving for the things they'll never own, The only things that haven't lost its Striving things they'll never own. The only thing hasn't

What does it matter if we're rich or we're poor?
For - tune and fame, They

What does it matter if we're rich or we're poor?
For - tune and fame, They

What does it matter if we're rich or poor? For - tune never endure, Oh, love is the thing,

Love is the

never endure, Oh, love is the thing,
Love is the

never endure, love is the thing.
Love is the thing! Love is the thing! Is the love. What good is money if your heart isn't light? Here in your arms, I'm wealthy tonight. When your heart isn't light? Here in your arms, I'm wealthy.

youth has its fling. Love is the thing! youth has its fling. Love is the thing! When youth was its fling. Love is the thing! Love is the thing!
LOVE IS THE THING / Hoja: 4/5

While others fight for pow'r, We can walk a-thing, the thing! While others fight for the pow'r, We can mong the flow'rs Knowing that the best thing in life is a walk among flow'rs Knowing the best thing in life is a thing that's free, Love for you and me,

thing that's free, Love for you and me.

thing in life that's free, Love for you and me.

And even tho' our castles crumble, We have the right to laugh at them all, For love is still King,

right to laugh them, For love is the King,

thing! Love is the thing! thing, is love!

thing! Love is the thing! thing, is love!

La Navata,
26 Septiembre 2019